

GHANA SCHOOL OF LAW

6 - MONTH PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATE COURSE IN CRIMINAL PROSECUTION AND LITIGATION

COURSE OVERVIEW

The programme aims to bridge the gap between the basic legal practice training provided to prosecutors (police, SSNIT, IRS, etc.) and the high level professional legal education of defense counsel. It is envisaged that the programme will boost the confidence of these officers in order to perform better in preparing and prosecuting criminal cases.

COURSE OBJECTIVE

To develop the legal knowledge, especially in the areas of criminal procedure and rules of evidence, and skills of police prosecutors and allied officers; enhance the court room advocacy skills of prosecutors; update their knowledge in relevant legislation and basic rules in interpreting laws.

TARGET GROUP

Investigators and prosecutors of allied security agencies including CEPS; Immigration Service; EOCO; NACOB; National Security, etc.; Agencies with mandate to prosecute such as SSNIT; IRS, EPA; FDA; Ghana Standard Authority.

COURSE CONTENT

Sources of Ghana's Law, General Principles of Criminal liability, General defences, Parties to a crime, Domestic disputes, Offences against children and other vulnerable persons, Indecent assault, sexual offences, procurement and abduction, and many more.
